‘Who is DanceAbility?’

As the mother of Patrick, a 13 year old boy with Down Syndrome, Lucy Ricardo decided 5 years ago, that he needed to explore and enjoy the same opportunities his younger abled sister received in her weekly dance classes. She knew music and dance would be a transformative experience for him as he loved the Wiggles just like his sister.

So, in mid 2008 with the dedicated assistance of a team of like minded parents, carers and volunteers she launched DanceAbility Australia Ltd, a dance school for children and adults of all ages with intellectual and physical disabilities. It has gone from strength to strength. Structured weekly rehearsals beginning in February culminate in an entertaining full scale concert in November which showcases the remarkable talents and ability revealed in all the students.

DanceAbility relies solely on the generosity of private and corporate Australia to fund its current program and its plans for the future, which includes more classes for more disabled students.

“At DanceAbility Australia there is not one star that is brighter than another. They all shine with their own brilliance proving that in life anything and everything is possible”. Lucy Ricardo, Founder.
